After a tedious chase requiring three visits to New York city and trips to Albany, New Haven, Hartford, New London and Norwich, Deputy Sheriff William H. Casey has returned with the object of his chase, Mrs., Lena Herschorn of New York, the necessary requisition papers having been endorsed by Acting Governor Biakeslee of New York. Mrs. Herschorn, with her husband, boarded part of July with Mr. and Mrs. Peckerman in North Stonington, Mrs. Herschorn left the place July 27 and shortly after Mrs. Peckerman missed her diamond earlings valued at $300, She found the tissue-paper in which they were wrapped in the room just vacated by Mrs. Herschorn, and at once feit convinced that she had stolen the ear rings. The acquired will be given a hearing before Justice Charles E. Chapman in North Stonington.

Dr. James H. Weeks is the possessor of two canes brought from the old country. Rev. Dwight C. Stone presented the doctor a unique writer's cane; by unscrewing two silver caps the owner can produce a pen and pencil when opened. This is appreciated as a souvenir of Switzerland. The other cane was used by Charles Willard in climbing the mountains and has a large spike in the end for that purpose. Mr. Willard used it on his trip abroad this summer. Dr. Weeks has a large and varied collection of walking sticks.

William Thorne, 28, a Lineman, Electrocuted Thursday Morning-Step-ped on Live Wire, Falling 20 Feet from Pole-Leaves Wife and Child in Greenport.

in Greenport.

William Thorne, whose home is in Greenport, L. L. a lineman for the Southern New England Telephone company, was electrocuted Thursday morning at about 8 o'clock at the terminal of West Mystic avenue and the New London road. He climbed the pole to fix the wire, but in some way was on the wrong side of the pole, and when about twenty feet up the pole stepped on a live wire. Fully 2300 volts passed through his body, threw him about twenty feet, and he landed on the ground in a semi-conscious condition. He was picked up by fellow workmen and a telephone message was sent for Dr. C. F. Congdon, who aratrived in a few minutes, but not until the man had passed beyond help. The wire had burned a large hole in his left foot and right breast. Dr. Congdon telephoned to Dr. Hewes of Grotton, medical examiner. He being out of town, word was sent to Norwich to Coroner F. H. Brown, who gave permission to have the body taken to the undertaking rooms of Wilcox & Shea. Supt. T. M. Ryley sent a special car from the car barn and had the unfortunate man removed. He was about 25 years of age, and had been in Mystic only a few days. He leaves his wife and one child in Greenport. The figures submitted in the bids for lighting, heating and ventilating the new town hall and courthouse have not been given out for publication.
